The Journey

Flat bread, aubergine & tomato dip

Welcome

"Morocco, where Berber, Arabian & European cultures collide. The maze Medina of Marrakesh, heavily scented with aromatic orange blossom, the bustle and bangs of many working hands, the babble of the barter. Any town in Morocco is an assault on the senses. Escape to the Agafay desert, and whilst the silence and stars may strike you with awe, the scents of rosemary and fresh mint still adorn the air with a surreal dryness. With the stalwart Moorish architecture and the winding roads you are in a magical place.

Tonight our chefs invite you to our Moroccan feast!
